N° 459.

IT is not to be wondered at, that Times of Danger and Difficulty ſhould encreaſe the Oppoſition to an Adminiſtration. A bad Situation of Affairs hath a natural Tendency to create Jealouſies and Fears in the Minds of the People, who will readily imagine that all things are not rightly conducted when any Misfortune befalls the State; as if Miniſters were not intituled to the ſame Grains of Allowance with Men of all other Profeſſions and Employments, from whom it is not expected that all their Undertakings ſhould be crowned with Succeſs, or that they ſhould be liable to no Miſtakes.

THE Craftſman carries the Matter further ſtill, and when all honeſt Men have laid down the Arms of their Oppoſition, amuſes his Readers with imaginary Dangers to come. Sometimes the Peace of Europe is repreſented as a dead Calm inſtead of a profound Tranquility; and at other Times he gives them Hopes that ſomething is ready to break out, which will embarraſs the World again, and then what will become of all our fine Politicks; for according to him, a Peace muſt endure for Ever, and a Treaty to all Generations, or the Miniſtry were to blame for making it.

BUT this is not reaſoning, but mere cavilling againſt Reaſon. The Situation of the World, and the Intereſts of Princes and States are ſo wavering, as not to admit of an unſhaken and unalterable Eſtabliſhment. There never was a Time yet, when the Enemies of their Country might not feed themſelves with Expectations of freſh Diſturbances.

BUT it hath ever been the Cuſtom of Miniſtry haters to blame thoſe Treaties, and depreciate the Merit of that Management which they diſliked for no other Reaſon, but their real Excellence and Beauty, and the Influence, Reputation and Honour, accruing thereby to thoſe whom they wanted to ſupplant; for Envy and Malice are ever at work to ſtur the faireſt Characters and the brighteſt Actors upon the publick Stage; beſides which, the different Views and Inclinations of Parties occaſions our ſeeing Things in very different Lights.

PRINCES and Miniſters muſt expect to have all their Actions ſcanned with the moſt penetrating Eye. Thoſe who have made the greateſt Figure in Story, were equally liable to Calumny and Detraction with thoſe who have acted gloriouſly; and the Reaſon is very obvious. Calumny and Detraction are the Employment of wicked and groveling Minds, and ſuperior Virtue and Succeſs always excite the Reſentment of bad and deſperate Men.

OUR Immortal Deliverer King William met with greater Oppoſition, and was more barbarouſly traduced than the bloody and inhuman Tyrant who reigned before him, at whoſe Power every one trembled; and to diſobey his Commands, or cenſure his Actions, involved the Offenders in ſure and inevitable Deſtruction.

HIS Grandfather * James the Firſt was, beyond all Adventure, a Prince of no extraordinary Endowments, and his Reign was one continued Series of Errors and Miſtakes: He is very juſtly ſtiled by Mr. Andrews the pacifick King, but he hath forgot to ſpecify the grand Miſcarriage of his Reign, which gained him an univerſal Odium both at Home and Abroad, the not ſupporting the Proteſtant Intereſt in Germany, and ſuffering the Elector Palatine to be deprived of the Crown of Bohemia and his Hereditary States, for want of his Aſſiſtance.

AND ſince I mention the Proteſtant Intereſt in Germany, I cannot avoid remarking how injurious the Suppoſition it is to the illuſtrious Family upon the Throne, and to the Proteſtant Cauſe, to repreſent his Majeſty's Poſſeſſions there, as an Incumbrance upon the Nation; when in reality, we ſhould be under the ſame Obligations to aſſiſt the Elector of Hanover, if he was not King of Great Britain, for the Preſervation of the Cauſe of the Reformation, and the Equilibre of Power in Europe, from being deſtroyed.

BUT it is a very pleaſant Objection to the Conduct of King James the Firſt, that he ſhould make SIR ROBERT CECIL his Prime Miniſter, becauſe he had held a Correſpondence with him, and had facilitated his Acceſſion to the Throne: I readily agree that was SIR ROBERT'S great Fault, and I think Mr. D'Anvers hath not mentioned any other.

HIS Reign was indeed a Reign of Treaties and Negotiations; but if the Intereſt and Honour of the Nation and its Allies, had been equally conſulted and provided for as under the preſent Adminiſtration, he would not have been ſtiled, ironically, the PACIFICK KING, but have been number'd among the beſt Princes that ever ſway'd the Engliſh Scepter.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

THE Letters from thence mention the News of the Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange, on Wedneſday laſt betwixt 9 and 10 o'Clock in the Forenoon, and the Death of the Infant Princeſs ſoon after; who was immediately laid on a Bed of State, and ordered to reſt there for 3 Days for the View of the People that flock'd in vaſt Numbers to ſee her. The Letters add, that her Royal Highneſs is as well as can be expected for a Lady in her Condition, and that an Officer ſent by Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel to Stockholm on a private Commiſſion to that Court, is coming with magnificent Preſents for her Royal Highneſs from their Swediſh Majeſties.

They write from Dreſden and Berlin, that the Queen of Poland and the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia, are both with Child.

The Letters from Italy ſay, that on the 18th of November O S. the Baron de Neuhoff arrived at Rome, lay at a publick Houſe a Night or two, and ſet out again next Morning early for Naples, accompanied by the Lawyer Coſta his Secretary, and another truſty Friend. They add a Report there, that after the Baron's Arrival at Leghorn, he had a ſecret Interview near Piſa, with one of the Spaniſh Generals; and they ſay, that at his Paſſage thro' Bologna, he paid a Viſit incognito to the Marquis de Monti. Mean time they write from Leghorn, that the Malecontents of Corſica are very far from ſubmitting to the Republick of Genoa, and are ſo little diſpoſed to an Accommodation, that they have aſſumed the Sovereign Authority, renew'd the Blockade of Algaiola, and have burnt and pillag'd ſeveral Villages where the Inhabitants were reckon'd to be well affected to the Genoeſe. It ſeems that they promiſe themſelves great Succeſs from the Baron's Voyage, and that they have his Nephew with them as a Hoſtage for the Performance of his Promiſes.

They write from Naples, that Cardinal Coſcia having ſeveral Times deſir'd Leave to wait on King Don Carlos, always met with a Repulſe, by reaſon of the ill Terms he ſtands in with the Pope; and that he is thereupon ſo chagrin'd, that notwithſtanding the Pope gave him permiſſion to ſtay there two Months longer, he has ſent to Rome to deſire the Governor of the Caſtle of St. Angelo, to fit up his old Lodgings for him, becauſe he deſigns to reſide there till the Pope thinks fit to give him his full Liberty.

The Letters from Rome mention the Execution of two obſtinate Jews there, after the fruitleſs Expoſition of the Hoſt in ſeveral Churches for their Converſion, and after all the like vain Efforts of the learned and zealous Clergy, as well as a converted Rabbi, to engage them to embrace Chriſtianity before they died; to all which the two Stiff-neck'd Iſraelites made Anſwer, that they would die in the Religion they were born in, and they did ſo accordingly with a great deal of Conſtancy.

They write from Leghorn, that the Spaniſh Officers in Tuſcany have on a ſudden diſcontinued their Preparations for paſſing the Winter in Tuſcany, and are doubling their Diligence for the Departure of the Troops to Spain, having put their heavy Baggage on board, ſalted the neceſſary Meat, and baked a great Quantity of Biſcuit for the Voyage. They add, that ſome Companies are actually embark'd on board 4 Tranſports, and only wait for a fair Wind to ſail for Barcelona under Convoy of a Man of War: But ſome will have it, that the Duke de Montemar has ſtarted another Difficulty to retard the entire Evacuation of Tuſcany, viz. the Demand of carrying off all the Artillery.

A certain Miniſter at Hamburgh pretends to certain Advice from Petersburg, that the Velt Marſhal the Count Munich, by reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, has deſir'd and obtain'd Leave to reſign the Command of the Ruſſian Army to Velt Marſhal Laſcy.

According to a Liſt from Vienna of the Imperial Troops on the Frontier of Turky, there are in Tranſilvania towards Wallachia 10,500 Men; 46,000 in the Bannat of Temeſwaer and Servia; 18,000 upon the Frontiers of Croatia, beſides 20,000 in Lower Hungary.

Hague, Dec. 19, N. S. This Day at Ten in the Forenoon, her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange was delivered, after a long and dangerous Labour, of a Princeſs, who died in the Birth. Her Royal Highneſs is as well as can be expected in her Condition.

S.* The King left Hanover about Ten of the Clock on Tueſday Night the 18th Inſtant, and got to Bentheim on Wedneſday about Nine at Night, and on Thurſday Evening about Ten arrived at Utrecht; from whence his Majeſty ſet out this Morning, and came to this Place a little after Seven in the Evening, where he continues in perfect Health.

Vander Duyn deſiſting from his Pretenſion to that Bailiwick, to have inſtead thereof the Regiment of Foot Guards for his Brother the Brigadier Vander Duyn, and a Place of Heemraad of Rhineland for his Son, continuing himſelf in the Council of State; M. Hompeſch to have the Government of Willemſtad; and M. Benting to be made Deputy to the States General. It is uncertain whether the States of Holland will approve of this Plan. As for their Penſionary, very probably M. Vander Heim will be the Succeſſor of M. Slingelandt, the Town of Amſterdam declaring for him; in which Caſe, 'tis ſaid M. Ten Hove will be made Treaſurer General in the room of M. Vander Heim; and young M. Fagel Secretary to the Council of State, in the room of M. Ten Hove.

Motto to LAYER's Scheme.

Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholick Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more adviseable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.

An immediate and never-failing CURE for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, which so far exceeds any thing ever yet published, or made Use of, that there is no Comparison; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cured all Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have been in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines, external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have failed, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for,

In a peculiar Manner it strengthens, softens, and loosens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dried, or shrivel'd, is often the first, and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick, that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all Means and Medicine have utterly failed; which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself: And a Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congealed Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.
